MORE BOWL

On Sunday night, during my half hour on KFWB I asked everybody to either come to Cypress Court, here in our midst, or else to mail me their "Worries," and I would see that they all went up in smoke in "Ole Man Trubble's Bowl." I also said that, if there was not sufficient interest shown, that I would not bother them with the thought again. It has been a marvelous week. I said that I would be there every day, from 3 o'clock until sunset, but I never dreamed that so many would be interested. Quite a number came from Long Beach and a few as far as Riverside. I was amply repaid for any possible sacrifice of time or energy that may have been devoted to the work. But the greatest satisfaction was the evidence of real faith, on the part of so many. Scores were only satisfied when they saw the last vestige of the slip of paper upon which they had written, turned to blackness. But many of the letters would give your heart a wrench. I personally saw every contribution sent each day reduced to ashes and then sent the certificates of release and the Right to enjoy Peace and Happiness. Yes, the "Worry Shop," and the "Cheer Shop" and "Ole Man Trubble's Bowl" are all well on the way to success and many splendid citizens are visiting and admiring picturesque Sierra Madre.

FOLKS LIKE US

Folks like us may help each other. E'en though tasks seem hard to bear. Burdens shared are burdens lightened. By the love of friends who care.

For the sun that shines the brightest Is the one seen through your tears. And the grind of just existing, Mellowed is, by passing years.

Put forget the petty grievance, Put your shoulder to the wheel. Do your best, nor stop to falter. And let time your sorrows heal.

Folks like us, for one another, Have no time for trifling hate. And we'll find Life's quite worth living If we'll all co-operate.

Call P.T.A. To Elect New President And Lay Out Years Work

A meeting of the executive board of the Parent-Teachers Association will be held during the week of September 14, it has been announced. Election of a president to take the place of Mrs. B. Collins, who now resides in Huntington Park, will be the main business.

Ambitious plans have been made by the new board for this year's meetings. Special entertainments and interesting features will be the order for the coming season.

Mrs. William Middough, first vice-president, will have charge of the first board meeting.

Another Landmark Has Gone Its Way

Another Sierra Madre landmark fell before the march of time this week as the one-room office occupied by S. R. G. Twycross for 30 years at Baldwin and Central was torn down to make room for the new drive-in market.

Until a year ago Mr. Twycross made the small wooden structure his headquarters for the various businesses in which he has been engaged in this city. At some time or another the building was used as a railroad ticket office, real estate, insurance, as bus, mail depot, waiting room, notary's office and headquarters of a coal and wood office.

Elks Band To Give Park Concert Here On September 16

A return engagement of the Pasadena Elks Band is scheduled for Wednesday night, September 16, in the city park. Two acts of vaudeville will also be presented that night during the intermission.

The great popularity of the Elks band here has prompted the American Legion to sponsor the concert. Arrangements are in charge of W. M. Bond.

Fine Tribute Paid Departed Friend At W. B. Corum Funeral

With members of the Kiwanis Club acting as pall bearers, funeral services were held Saturday afternoon for William Bird Corum, who passed away last Wednesday night at his home on Sturtevant Trail.

One of the largest funerals ever held in Sierra Madre attested to the popularity of Mr. Corum and Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard, who conducted the services, paid a tribute to his friendly, generous disposition.

Waverly Pratt, Frank Spencer, Charles Klunk, Dr. John L. Woehler, Gordon Brooks and H. Clay Reavis laid the remains of their fellow Kiwanian to rest in a great mass of flowers from loving friends and neighbors. The interment was at Sierra Madre Cemetery with Sierra Madre Funeral Parlors in charge of the services.

The business carried on by Mr. Corum for many years on Sturtevant Trail will be continued under the management of Mrs. Corum and Jack Moffatt.

Start Work On Canyon's Paving Job

Actual work on the canyon improvement project was started this week when men were set to work strengthening the retaining wall on Sturtevant Road. Two field parties have also begun the preliminary work of setting grade stakes for the contractors.

Charles O. Heuser and Jack Bingham, of Pasadena. In an effort to complete the improvement before the rainy season arrives, tractors and leveling equipment will be brought into the canyon within a few days. Work will be speeded up in order that the 120 day limit of the contract may be strictly adhered to.

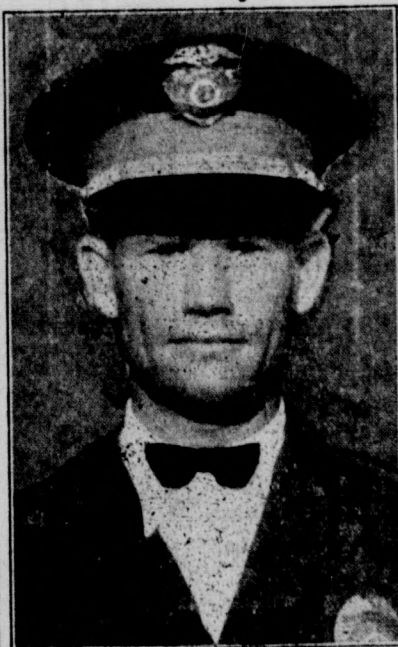

It is the contractors' plan to finish Woodland Drive before work to any great extent is done to other streets. This will protect the road in case of rain and will provide a means of entry and exit to the canyon.

According to A. S. Myers, city manager, unskilled laborers on the project will be drawn from Sierra Madre's unemployed.

Paving Of Foothill Boulevard Nearby Will Cost $300,000

Bids for the widening and repaving of Foothill Boulevard south of this city, from Sierra Madre avenue in Lamanda Park to Fifth avenue in Arcadia, will be received by the county supervisors on September 21.

POLICE CHIEF AND BRIDE STEAL MARCH ON FRIENDS

Chief Gordon McMillen and His Bride

Gordon G. McMillen and Marie Ernestine Jenkins "put one over" on members of the fire department and other Sierra Madre friends on Wednesday evening. They were married—and got away to the High Sierra on their honeymoon before any of the well laid plans of these friends to give them "a send off" could be executed.

It was a very quiet wedding, and so quietly arranged that none but the immediate families of the bride and groom and Dean Arnold G. Bode, who officiated.

Special Trains To Carry Local Folks To The Fiesta Mass

Two special Pacific Electric cars will leave Mountain Trail avenue at 10 a.m. next Sunday for Los Angeles, so that the people of Sierra Madre may attend the Fiesta mass, which will be celebrated at the Olympic Stadium on Sunday at noon. Tickets may be secured from Woodson Jones or at the Rectory of St. Rita's Catholic Church. Rev. Hyacinth Clarey has given out over 200 tickets in his parish.

Morton of 495 East Orange Grove avenue as vice president. Observations

By LEE SHIPPEY

The most amazing thing about Southern California is that it can spring a different kind of unusual weather every week. Lately it has been rain for the last of August and the first of September and that's so unusual that a lot of Sierra Madre folks got caught in Hollywood Bowl. Now if it weeps all over the Los Angeles Fiesta it'll be just too bad. If this thing keeps up we might even be shy on sunshine and roses for the New Year's game in the Rose Bowl.

Larry Goshorn and I are going to fight a duel over that Sturtevant Trail road, the weapons being dictionaries at fifteen paces. Larry thinks it would be a great idea and make Sierra Madre grow and prosper—like Monrovia. Gosh! wouldn't it be tough to give up a distinctive town like Sierra Madre for a growing, busy, ordinary town like Monrovia? All the growing towns are growing to be replicas of each other, and bore me to tears. No rose was ever as big as cabbage and when they get that way they'll cease to charm.

Soldiers Get 25 Hits In One Game

Humiliated by a 14-6 defeat at the hands of the Arcadia soldiers on Friday night the local Legionnaires made a quick comeback at the school athletic field on Saturday night and took their revenge on the East Pasadena veterans, pounding out a 15-10 win.

Sierra Madre slugged viciously in the encounter with East Pasadena, chalking up 25 hits for its 15 runs. Burroughs, hurling for the locals, allowed 12 hits which together with errors accounted for East Pasadena's 10 runs. The showers fell and lightning flashed during Friday's game with Arcadia and the field was in darkness several times as the lights failed. The local soldiers deny that the thunder and lightning unnerved them, nevertheless they were in anything but top form and were outplayed by their opponents both in the offensive and defensive.

The Garvalia Churchmen substituted for Whittier's Christian Endeavor team which was scheduled to play the local Bethany church entry in the city league on Monday night and again Bethany was trounced 16-7.

The Icemen defeated the Simonizers on Tuesday by a score of 14-1. Dan Green, pitching for the Icemen, showed remarkable form and his hurling in a post season series would undoubtedly cut a big figure in the play-off game.

With a number of substitutes in its lineup the local Legion team suffered a 10-4 defeat at the hands of Moran's Construction Team at the athletic field on Wednesday night. The soldiers lost the game in the fifth inning when the Morans ran riot and tallied 7 runs.

Clang Of The School Bell Soon Heard

All Of Sierra Madre's Pupils Go Back To Their Tasks On September 14

The old school bell—not in the little red school house—but in Sierra Madre's new $200,000 temple of learning, will ring out on Monday Morning, September 14, calling the children back to their tasks and associates after a three-month vacation. And the same day will summon Sierra Madre's quota back to their studies at the Woodrow Wilson junior high school and to the junior college in Pasadena.

Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, principal of the Sierra Madre school, will welcome the pupils, prepared to greet a record number. The first day will be in the nature of a holiday for the youngsters, for much of it will be devoted to registration. Few books will be opened. The teachers will endeavor to get acquainted with their new charges. It will take a few days to get the machinery in good running order but before the end of the week the classes will get going in their regular schedule.

The teaching staff of the grammar school will remain the same as last year with but the addition of Miss Virginia Schofield Brainerd, who will take the place of Mrs. Albert S. Junker, formerly Miss Florence Reichard.

Sierra Madre contributes about one fourth of the students at Woodrow Wilson, and Arthur M. Brown, principal, expects at least 150 this year.

Buses to Woodrow Wilson will leave Sierra Madre this year from Baldwin and Grand View avenues. A card of 40 rides must be purchased at the school. The first day at Woodrow Wilson will be devoted to registration. Keys and lockers may be secured that day. It will also be the day for the payment of fees.

There will be several special programs at Woodrow Wilson next week, the object being to acquaint the students with the instructors and promote a feeling of friendship.

It is expected that this will be a great year for athletics at Wilson. Football practice will not start until two weeks after the opening of the school. Boys in the ninth, tenth and eleventh grades will be allowed to receive uniforms and try for the teams.

Freshman week, starting Sunday, September 13, will usher in the new school year for the junior college students. A reception for new students and pals will take place at 2 p.m. At 3:30 a Vesper Service will be held in the auditorium.

The program for the first week will include entertainment; homecoming night, Monday at 7:30; meet the faculty night, Friday at 7:30; A. W. S. and A. M. S. meetings, Wednesday at 10 and 10:25; new students' luncheon, cafeteria, Thursday, both lunch periods.

St. Rita's Parochial school at 318 North Baldwin avenue will start registration on Friday, September 11, with school officially opening the following Monday. The school, which is under the supervision of the Sisters of St. Joseph, will be taught by Sister M. Ameliana, superior; Sister M. Augustus and Sister M. Marita.

Program For Celebration Announced

A tentative program for the semi-centennial exercises in commemoration of the city's fiftieth birthday has been announced by Elmer A. Green, General Chairman.

As planned now the event will be initiated on the evening of Friday, October 9th, by appropriate exercises in the auditorium of the new school building. It is hoped to have John Steven McGarvey make the principal address. Representatives from historical societies of neighboring San Gabriel Valley cities will contribute briefly and old timers will give short reminiscences. Interspersed to balance the program will be music, both vocal and instrumental.

On the following day, Saturday, the finals in the tennis tournament, to start soon under the supervision of Emile Smith, will be run off in the morning; basket parties will picnic at the park and other places; about 2:30 it is expected that Governor Rolph will address the "assembled multitude."

Throughout the afternoon, except while the Governor is speaking, there will be sports of every conceivable nature, 100 yard dashes, bag races, three-legged races, apple ducking, the program winding up with a real baseball game about 4 o'clock.

GEORGE CLARK BUYS CENTRAL AVENUE HOME

George Clark of Suffolk avenue, has purchased the home of Miss Martha Butsch, 193 West Central avenue.

Its Former Advocates Wage Vigorous Fight Against The Central Ave. Improvement

Except that solicitation is confined to property holders instead of all of the registered voters, a campaign is being waged by leaders against the Central Avenue improvement project rivaling in intensity recent municipal elections and the memorable recall battle of 1929 when two Councilmen lost their seats.

Curiously enough the fight against the improvement is being led by the very men who were recalled because of their advocacy of it two years ago.

The present battle will not be decided by the number of persons who sign up against the long dreamed of improvement, but upon the acreage represented by the comparatively few names that are being most eagerly sought on the petitions. The non-property holder will not have a voice and while the small home owner may express himself freely, it is his area that will really count for or against the improvement.

The question as to whether or not the County will abide by its agreement to extend Central Avenue through the Hastings ranch and into Pasadena unless Sierra Madre fulfills its agreement to improve the thoroughfare within its own city limits has become a big question in the fight. County Road Commissioner George W. Jones has written a second letter on the subject to H. J. Kohl, president of an association whose organization here on Monday night was announced by Mr. Kohl. This letter is published elsewhere on this page of THE NEWS.

Henry E. Isaacs was confident yesterday that the campaign against the improvement would be successful.

"We have more than 650 acres signed up against it," he said.

By some the last letter of Road Commissioner Jones is interpreted as emphasizing the fact that if Sierra Madre fails to carry through its agreement the County will not only withdraw its offer of financial support in the improvement of Central Avenue within the city, but that it will regard a road through the Hastings ranch as a merely local instead of a connecting link or general improvement and build a road there when the ranch property has been built up and local conditions require it. Mr. Isaacs and his associates, on the other hand, interpret it as meaning that the County will go ahead with the ranch road regardless of Sierra Madre's disposition of the improvement within the city.

The protest hearing on Thursday night will probably be one of the most lively meetings ever held at the City Hall.

"JUST LIKE A WOMAN" -- THIS PROPERTY OWNER WANTS TO KNOW

Announcing that she has been asked to sign a protest against the Central Avenue improvement project, Mrs. Josephine Marr, a large Sierra Madre property holder, has asked a series of questions in a letter to the Central Avenue Property Owners Association in which she says, in part:

"As a property owner I am vitally interested in the discussion over the Central Avenue project.

"A protest against the improvement is being circulated. I have been talked to about it. To date, I have not signed because no reasons sufficient to convince me this protest is to the real advantage of Sierra Madre have been advanced. Here are some questions I would like answered:

"1. Why should this project be stopped now when the cost is reasonable and the city has been trying to get this road for over twenty years?

"2. Why are recalled Councilmen trying to stop it and who is financing the cost of the protest? Who is paying the lawyer?

"3. Why do these ex-Councilmen denounce the Mattoon Act now and call it a 'blanket mortgage' when in '28 and '29 they tried to use it to force through a $303,000 project?

"4. Why are these bonds more of a 'blanket mortgage' than flood control bonds, or school bonds, or any other bonds paid with the taxes, or than the taxes themselves?

"5. Why, if these men oppose Central Avenue because they really believe this is not the time to ask our property owners to incur additional expense—why do they also oppose the Sturtevant Road extension into the mountains where the entire cost is to be paid by the county and which will furnish employment to many men of our city?

"6. If I sign this protest and the project is stopped, will I be responsible with the rest of the signers for the indebtedness already incurred?

"7. What is the real motive back of the protest?"

(Signed)

MRS. JOSEPHINE E. MARR.

ROAD COMMISSIONER JONES AGAIN STATES THE COUNTY'S ATTITUDE

Addressing another letter on the attitude of the County with respect to the Central Avenue improvement project to H. J. Kohl, as president of the Sierra Madre Improvement and Protective Association, Road Commissioner George W. Jones under date of September 1, says:

"Referring to my letter dated August 27th, directed to Mr. A. S. Myers, Business Manager of your city, I am informed that there has been some misunderstanding as to the exact meaning of the last sentence in the last paragraph of this letter, which reads as follows:

"The County would only build the portion in unincorporated territory if and when, in its judgment, the improvement would be justified as a local proposition, inasmuch as it could not obtain the status of a through road until improved through the City of Sierra Madre."

"Perhaps I can clarify the meaning of the above sentence by stating that the judgment of the County in determining whether or not the improvement of Central Avenue in unincorporated territory as a LOCAL proposition is justified, will not be influenced by the improvement or non-improvement of that portion of Central Avenue lying within the City Limits.

"Trusting that the County's attitude is now clearly forth, I remain, Very truly yours,

GEORGE W. JONES
Road Commissioner

Local Pupils Lose Good Friend As Miss M. C. Scott Passes On

There will be one vacant chair, and a chair hard to fill, when Pasadena schools open on Monday, September 14. Mildred C. Scott, former counselor of the Woodrow Wilson junior high school, passed away on August 23, after a brief illness. She had been a member of the Pasadena school staff since 1926. She was revered by all Sierra Madre pupils and their parents. She acquired the rare achievement of a full understanding of her individual pupils and managed their learning with an ease that won their endearment.

At the end of the school year last spring Miss Scott was transferred to the new Elliott junior high school, where she was to have been counselor. In July she took up her duties and spent the summer arranging her work. On the eve of the opening of the new school year she was stricken.

Before coming to Pasadena, Miss Scott had taught Latin in a school in a small town in Maine and left that to go into counseling work in Boston and later in New York. She attended Boston University and the University of Michigan and received her master's degree from Harvard. She also studied at U.S.C.

Home Building Takes Decided Jump In August

Building permits for the month of August totaled $14,177, compared with $485 for August, 1930. Up to date this year, permits were valued at $64,930.

All of the permits accounted for in the figures for August were for small homes and for alterations and additions.

Speed limits on the open highway have been raised from 40 to 45 miles per hour, in residential districts to 25 miles per hour and in the business district to 20 miles.

Chief of Police G. G. McMillan announces the following districts have been sign posted by the Automobile Club of Southern California: residence district, Central avenue between Sunny-side and Auburn; Central between Baldwin and Canon; Baldwin between Orange Grove and Suffolk; and Baldwin north from Montecito; business district, Baldwin between Suffolk and Montecito; and Central between Auburn and Baldwin.

The speed limit on practically all other streets in Sierra Madre, and which are not sign posted, is 25 miles per hour with 15 miles per hour permissible at all intersections.

The new signs are square with black background and white lettering.

Preparing History Of The Kiwanis

Local Club Presented With "Friendship Book" By Monrovia Delegates

Sierra Madre's chapter of the history of the Kiwanis movement in the California-Nevada, or Tenth Kiwanian district, is being written. "The Friendship Book" was brought to this city on Tuesday by County Superintendent of Schools A. R. Clifton, escorted by a delegation of Monrovia Kiwanians, and turned over to the local organization at its weekly luncheon-meeting at the Woman's Club-house.

The Monrovia club has just completed and inserted its history in the volume. After the local club has written in the space allotted it, with illustrations, President Pratt and a delegation from the local club will present the volume to the San Gabriel Club on September 15. The latter, in turn, will carry it on to another San Gabriel Valley unit and so the volume will make the rounds of the Tenth district, eventually to be a history of the organization's growth and accomplishments in the two States.

Following his formal presentation of the "Friendship Book," Superintendent Clifton pleaded with the local club to give its best thought and efforts towards relieving the unemployment situation. He told of recent intimate knowledge of the situation that had come to him through work in which he has been engaged and of the actual privation and distress that had come under his personal observation.

Novel MacGregor, of this city, who collaborated with John Steven McGroarty in the production of "The Mission Play" which is produced each winter at San Gabriel, discussed the discovery of San Francisco Bay and Monterey and the founding of the California Missions by Father Junipero Serra, and described the hardships of the padre and the soldiers who accompanied him.

City Business Manager Al S. Myers and Attorney A. L. Wisburg were accepted into membership by the local club and presented with the club emblem by Jack Eberly, past lieutenant-governor of District No. 10.

The delegation of Monrovia that brought the history here included Bob Radford, J. W. Hudson, Arthur G. Williams, Guy M. Seary, R. C. Droper, Fred Griew, Reeve Hobbie, Joe Arner, O. A. Prest, S. A. Cochran, Victor Teaney, Dr. J. M. Furstman. Those from Pasadena included Jack Eberly, B. Kingman and Rod Jacobson and R. G. Sears.

Waverly Pratt and Mayor H. Clay Reavis attended the Long Beach Kiwanis luncheon together with the Legionnaires in convention in that city.

BETHANY'S PASTOR BACK FROM VACATION

Pastor William Duncan Ogg of Bethany Church, after an absence from his pulpit for a month, returns to his church on Sunday. He has chosen for the morning theme "The Faith of Bethany," and for the evening "How May I Know God's Plan for My Life?" Mr. Ogg is most ably assisted by Mr. Roy Stevens, the musical director of Bethany.

Hart Has A Treat For City's Kids

Film Star Will Loan All Of His Western Pictures For Showing At School

The children of all communities of Southern California will be envious of Sierra Madre's youngsters if the Parent Teachers Association can find a way to avail itself of a very wonderful offer made for their benefit by "Bill" Hart, noted film actor and idol of young America.

The coming here of his friend Burr McIntosh has given Hart a more than friendly interest in this city. He came here a couple of weeks ago from his Newhall ranch to attend the celebration of Mr. McIntosh's birthday. It was not his first visit to Sierra Madre but the character of the birthday party added materially to the charm of the place from Hart's standpoint. In addition to the natural beauty of the city he saw a spirit of friendliness and neighborliness on the part of the people that greatly impressed him and in a brief speech he made honoring his old friend, the "Cheerful Philosopher," he took occasion to refer to the city with much feeling.

Later, during a conversation with Lee Shippey, the latter in telling the cowboy hero about the city, let drop the fact that it is without a moving picture theatre and that the children here are obliged to go elsewhere for their Saturday afternoon film entertainments.

Instantly Mr. Hart made a wonderful proposition. He is the owner of the films of 26 pictures he made, including those in which he achieved his greatest fame. He informed Shippey that these were at the disposal of the school children here; that he would loan them to the P-T. A., the school board or any other organization or agency that would arrange to exhibit the pictures at the schoolhouse, but with the distinct understanding that the showings shall be for the benefit of the children of the city.

With the organization of the Parent-Teachers Association at its meeting some time after the opening of the school term on September 14th, Mr. Shippey will formally present the offer of Mr. Hart to the association.

September 21 Sierra Madre Day At Fair

Monday, September 21st, will be Sierra Madre day at the huge agricultural and industrial exposition formed by the combination of Los Angeles County Fair and Southern California fair at Pomona. A special program of events which promises to make the day a red letter one in the history of the fair, has been arranged. The gates will swing open at 10 o'clock in the morning and from that time until midnight there will be something to occupy the attention every moment.

The morning hours will be given over largely to a tour of the 10,000 classifications included in the list of fair exhibits this year. During the cooler hours of the day these exhibitions will be presented to their best advantage. In honor of the guests of the day there will be special music by massed bands and a special presentation of the spectacular Fanchon and Marco extravaganza.

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the doors of the grandstand will open for one of the biggest matinee horse racing programs ever seen in the Southland. Two fast harness races of three heats each are scheduled and in addition there will be two running races. Interspersing the events there will be thrilling acts and colorful entertainment in front of the grandstand.

This year the evening program has been divided between the beautiful society horse show and the night races. During the first six days of the fair the horse show will be staged and during the last four nights it will be replaced by the night races which proved so popular last year.

This particular visitor from the mountains prowled about in the neighborhood of their home. While one of the boys kept an eye on the snake the other hastened to the house at 620 East Central avenue and returned with his .22 caliber rifle with which the snake was dispatched.

Canyon Is Considered For A Park

Three County Agencies Inquiring Into Availability Of Eaton Wash

Three county agencies are conducting a survey of the Eaton Canyon wash to determine its availability for county park purposes. Various civic organizations in Pasadena and surrounding towns have succeeded in enlisting the interest of County Supervisor Hugh A. Thatcher to the point where the project is apparently being seriously considered.

It is of particular interest to Sierra Madre because the 600 acre tract proposed for park purposes and extending from the mountains to Michilinda is just beyond the city's western boundary.

Engineer E. C. Eaton of the County Flood Control Commission has advised the Pasadena Association that his department has begun its survey. Another angle of the area's availability is being inquired into by the department of Recreation and Playgrounds. Immediately after Supervisor Thatcher brought the matter to the attention of the board of supervisors and secured approval of his colleagues for a survey, the Regional Planning Commission started its inquiry.

All of the cities in the western San Gabriel Valley have been asked to endorse the project. The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce has the matter of an endorsement pending. When the matter was considered at a recent meeting of the chamber the directors delayed action until they ascertained whether or not the creation of such a park in this community would entail any financial obligation on the city directly or in the way of increased taxation.

Much of the property proposed to be used lies within the city of Pasadena and a considerable part of it, including no little water bearing land, is owned by the city. However it will be necessary to acquire some privately owned properties along the wash to give the proposed park the area wished by its advocates.

The project is not entirely a new one. Several years ago when the matter was brought up various Sierra Madre organizations endorsed the idea.

GARDEN NOTES FOR SEPTEMBER

By Jessie Ward Russell, Landscape Gardener

September should be a very busy month in the garden for it is the month of preparation for the winter flowers. Sweet pea seeds should be planted now but not when the thermometer stands at 100 degrees, for that will cook them. The weather should be just moderately warm. Work well-rotted manure into the trench. Do not use fresh manure. Stocks and snapdragon seeds can be planted now or if you do

VERY SIMPLE TO KEEP SCUM OFF FISH PONDS

Empty rifle shells or bits of copper thrown into the fish pools will keep them clear of green algae. This method of keeping pools free of scum and slime on the water was accidentally discovered by members of the New London, Conn., Isaac Walton League. Following their shooting tournaments, members of the organization threw empty 22 shells in the large trout pool maintained by the chapter and the thick coating of scum that had accumulated quickly disappeared. The cause was traced to the copper in the shells and an examination showed that it did not harm the fish. Word of the discovery was immediately sent out to all of the other Isaac Walton chapters throughout the country.

so that it can not saw into the bark of the trees when the wind blows. Seedling trees can be budded as soon as they are as thick through as your middle finger. Trees that are too large to bud can be grafted. Seedling avocado trees, when not budded, are very slow to bear and generally do not amount to much.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

STEVE PETSEL gave the boys a treat of watermelon last Friday, and in order that they might eat it in the most natural way, he invited them all to his big park, where there would be plenty of room in case the wind should slip from some of their fingers. No one took the trouble to count the melons, but as Louie Karger ate two himself, we would figure that there must have been plenty.

In reading a statement of the attendance during the past six years, the Chief revealed that our handsomest member, the Assistant Chief, holds the highest score. George is usually connected with every thing that has to do with the department, be it fire-fighting or otherwise. He enjoys fire so well that he has become somewhat of a nuisance with his several pipes. Ne'er a practice night goes by that he doesn't surfocate some brother fireman.

The First Aid crew has practically taken possession of the quarters while preparing for a competition at the County Fair. When we looked in yesterday Hibbs had Thew down on the floor with so many bandages on him that he looked like Houdini before attempting one of his famous escapes.

Some things that are not always reported at the meetings do occur when the Chief and Bob Newberry attend the San Gabriel Firemen's meetings. At the last one, a dance was held after the business and altho' the Chief did not care to dance, he was somewhat "inspired" to get in. The report that followed the boys indicates that the Chief was very popular.

A number of the boys were out on what might be termed a still alarm one night during the recent thunder and lightning storm. The others who were not in on it feel as tho' they were slighted and are anxious that the siren be sounded in the future. No one is able to predict the extent of a fire when it is reported to the fire department. To wait and find out, would be a very good opening for criticism. Oh well, the FIRE'S OUT.

Former President Menocal of Cuba is to have another term this time in jail.

Property Owners!

A protest against the Central Avenue Project is being circulated. Certain questions of interest to all property owners are being asked by many of those approached. The TRUE ANSWERS should be known to EVERYONE!

1. WHAT WOULD BE THE COST TO SIERRA MADRE OF ABANDONING THIS PROJECT?

According to Henry S. Gierlich, engineer in charge, indebtedness amounting to $19,700 will have to be paid. (This is in addition to the $10,000 advanced by the County and spent by the former Council.) A large portion of this $19,700 was incurred by the former Council. Also we would lose $16,000 allocated by the County for the present plan. In other words, Sierra Madre would be out $35,700.

2. IF THE PRESENT PROCEEDINGS ARE ABANDONED, WHAT WILL BE THE COST OF NEW PROCEEDINGS TO IMPROVE CENTRAL AVENUE UNDER SOME OTHER ACT THAN THE MATTOON ACT?

The engineer states it is impossible to give an estimate because recent legislation requires so much costly preliminary work with no provision for paying for the same if the project is protested out. He is confident it would cost property owners many thousands more than to proceed with the present plan, as under any improvement act the law passed at the last legislature doubles the engineering costs.

3. HOW SOON COULD SUCH NEW PROCEEDINGS BE STARTED?

The engineer and the attorney state it would mean a delay of years, probably until the new law is repealed or drastically amended. It has so many restrictions and so much expense is involved in preliminary work with no protection against protests, that no Council would risk jeopardizing the general fund by permitting work to be commenced unless some one guaranteed all this expense. The law, called "Special Assessments Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931," generally referred to as Assembly Bill No. 218, puts a stop to all new street improvements in Sierra Madre and similar cities as long as it stands in its present form.

4. WILL THE COUNTY BUILD THE ROAD THROUGH THE HASTINGS RANCH ANYWAY?

The letter from the office of George W. Jones, County Road Commissioner, printed in last week's News, answers that question. In addition, speaking from the standpoint of business honor, how can Sierra Madre expect the county to go ahead when the deed for the right of way through the Hastings Ranch was obtained from Charles Hastings under the threat of heavy expense to him through the Mattoon Act proceedings, which included the improvement within our city limits. If the Mattoon Act proceedings are abandoned, it would appear the county is morally obligated to return that deed to Mr. Hastings. How can Sierra Madre repudiate its part of the bargain and expect Mr. Hastings and the County to keep theirs?
